

Program Facilitator

Who we're looking for

We are looking for Program Facilitators to facilitate programs for Yoga Ed. They will lead online and/or in-person workshops and classes to support organizational clients. They will also oversee online training courses, including leading live community gatherings, reviewing course assignments, and final projects. The person must demonstrate significant knowledge and passion for yoga education, as well as the experience necessary for facilitating online learning programs.

How your skills will come to life

- Lead online and in-person workshops and classes to support organizational customers
- Facilitate online training courses, including leading live community gatherings, reviewing course assignments, and final projects
- Teach online and in-person yoga and mindfulness classes
- Review and report on online courses for quality assurance purposes
- Attend monthly team meetings

What we require

- Thrives in a high-growth, early-stage business
- Master's degree or 5-10 years equivalent experience in Education
- 5-10 years of experience in teaching yoga, mindfulness, and/or health and wellness in academic environments
- Familiarity with yoga, education, and health and wellness
- Proven experience working independently in a remote work environment
- Strong verbal and written communicator
- Excellent computer skills and comprehension of mac OS, iOS, Slack, Google Apps Suite, Salesforce, Thinkific
- Creativity, flexibility, and a positive can-do attitude
- Multitasking and organizational skills, with keen attention to detail and time management
- Be an integral member of a small business team

Details

This is an independent contractor position.