

Program Lead

Who we're looking for

We are looking for a Program Lead to deliver and oversee the successful implementation of Yoga Ed. programs for school customers. The Program Lead is responsible for leading engaging trainings, classes, and workshops online and in-person that support customer needs and outcomes. The position will also be responsible for training program facilitators to ensure program quality and fidelity.

How your skills will come to life

- Lead online and in-person workshops, trainings and classes to support organizational customers including schools, districts, and non-profits
- Work collaboratively with programs and sales team members to identify areas of opportunity for new educational programs that support the needs of school communities
- Work collaboratively with marketing and sales to create educational offerings
- Facilitate online training courses
- Review and report on educational offerings for program fidelity, continuous improvement, and quality assurance purposes

What we require

- Passionate about yoga, mindfulness, and health and wellness
- Master's degree in social work, psychology, or related discipline (LMHC, LCSW, LMFT)
- At least 2 years experience working in behavioral health
- At least 2 years experience working with educators or students in a K-12 setting
- Thrives in an early-stage business with confidence working independently
- Strong verbal and written communicator, with the ability to interact with a variety of stakeholders, using appropriate language for each.
- Excellent computer skills and comprehension of mac OS, iOS, Slack, Google Apps
- Be keenly interested in relationship development — you love meeting new people and making a great first impression with them.
- Strong change management skills to help implement change at a district and site level
- Multitasking and organizational skills, with keen attention to detail and time management
